Foreword . . . . .

As we glance back over the past twelve years we realize, perhaps some of us for the first time, what an important part our school has played in the lives of all of us. It has been at the center of nearly all our activities, our good times, our work and our accomplishments. It has given us the training, experience, and confidence we need to go out and find our rightful places in the world.

When we speak of our school we speak not only of a building, but of the spirit that prevails in it, and of our principal, teachers, and classmates.

In this Annual we have tried to recreate, at least in part, the warmth, the friendliness, and the spirit of our Alma Mater, and since it would be impossible to single out one person or element to bestow our appreciation upon, we herein dedicate our year book to . . .

.... our school

.... our Principal

.... and our classmates.

Class History

It seems such a short while since we, the Class of 57', were happily making the rounds of slides, see-saws, and merry-go-rounds, then trudging home after school with skinned knees, muddy shoes, and torn sashes. Those first years of Dick and Jane and simple arithmetic flew by, and soon we found ourselves high in the elementary grades, and looking up to the high-school students with worshipful eyes.

The wonderful September day finally arrived when we became full-fledged Freshmen. We must have looked awkward and completely lost, but we were much too proud to notice that! The year was filled with Latin, Algebra, and lots of fun.

As sophomores we looked haughtily down at the Freshmen, and wondered if we could possibly have been so noisy and silly.

Our Junior year ushered in excited plans for the Prom, and frantic last minute preparations to get things ready. We think we succeeded in creating the perfect "Evening in Paris."

Then, at last, it was our turn to take over the coveted role of Seniors. This has been the busiest year of all, filled with much planning for term papers, Senior plays, the long awaited Washington trip, and finally graduation.

Though we've done our share of complaining about book reports, what we term excessive homework, and those inevitable detention hall slips, we look back upon these last twelve years with fondest memories, which time can never erase. To those who walk the halls of Smithfield after us, we say, uphold her standards with loyalty, pride, and honor.

Organizations

Club Notes

Participation in clubs and organizations plays an important role in the Smithfield student's life. The literary minded enjoy working on the staffs of our two publications, THE HAM and THE PIG'S TALE. Outstanding staff members are invited to join the QUILL and SCROLL, a national society for high school journalists.

The S.C.A. is composed of representatives from each class, and the BETA CLUB each year invites students with high scholastic records to join its ranks.

Foreign language students join the LATIN and SPANISH clubs, while athletes and cheerleaders who earn their letters make up the VARSITY and MONOGRAM clubs. FFA and FHA train future farmers and homemakers. Two of our newest organizations are the DE and DO clubs, which give invaluable background for meeting job requirements. Join in, you will find a club to meet your interest.

Music Notes

The Smithfield High School band and chorus are now in their fourth year, and we look with pride upon the tremendous strides we have taken. Through untiring effort, Mr. Frank Mesite, our director, has worked to give us sound training in our musical endeavors, and above all to help us attain a love and appreciation for good music.

From the band has sprung an organized dance band, and a girls' quartet has also been formed. We look upon these groups with equal pride.

As we view our active music department, giving frequent concerts and programs, and as we hear each day the familiar sound of instruments and voices, we know that the efforts of Mr. Mesite and his students have been rewarding ones.

Senior Plays

This year the Senior Class presented three delightful one-act plays, "The Pampered Darling", dealing with the adventures of a spoiled fourteen-year-old; "Savind Dad", the love story of a bugologist; and "Bett's Best Bet", a hilarious mix-up over mistaken identities. The plays were great fun to produce, and enjoyed by all.

Blue and Gold Review

"All the way, Packers!" and "Come on team, fight!" are familiar cries at Smithfield High, whether the game be football, basketball, baseball, or track. Even though no championships were won this year, our teams went through a busy year of rebuilding, and we are justly proud of their accomplishments. Our athletic program gives us valuable training in good sportsmanship, self-discipline, and team spirit.

It took almost a year to develop the special shade of deep blush rose which makes this tender rose look almost real. Royal Doulton's famous English artists believe in perfection: in every soft rosy petal, in every subtly shaded leaf, in the platinum edged border, in the soft grey tone that contrasts so beautifully with the whiteness and smoothness of this world renowned boned china. Here is the pattern for the lover of really fine china—see it today!
